

DAY 1: MAKE AN EMOTION THAUMATROPE

Color the faces left and right. Cut the circles with the help of an adult. Glue one circle on the back of the other with a straw, a stick or a pencil in between. Place the stick in your hands and turn it as if you were rubbing your hands. Can you see the emotion coming and going?

Do the same with the other emotions: color the emotion on the back of the circle at the right (except the eyes, which are already in the left circle) and see fear, sadness and anger coming and going.
